

First Announcement for ISHN2016 in Maastricht, The Netherlands.

President Paul Eling and the members of the organizing committee are organizing the 21st meeting of the ISHN, which will be held 11 – 16 July 2016 in Maastricht in the Lecture Hall of the Aula of Maastricht University.

- The Aula is situated at the Minderbroedersberg 4-6, Maastricht
- It is within the beautiful old center of this old Roman city, with nice buildings and squares
- The lecture hall with climate conditioning will be an excellent place for our conference, with good catering facilities.

•The Local Arrangements Committee is working on plans for hotel accommodations, a gala dinner, special symposia, and a program for accompanying persons. Details will be posted here and on the ISHN-L and HISTNEUR-L listservs as they become available.

We have room options for the following hotels:

Hotel Les Charmes ***

Hotel Botticelli ***

Other hotels:

- Hotel Derlon ******
- Hotel Crowne Plaza ******
- Hotel Beaumont ******
- Hotel Brittanique *****

We also investigate the option of rooms in the University Guesthouse and Bed&Breakfast rooms.

21st Conference International Society for the History of the Neurosciences (ISHN)
11 July – 16 July
Maastricht

Organizing Committee

dr. Paul Eling

President of the International Society of the History of the Neurosciences Dept. of Psychology, Radboud University Nijmegen.

dr. Peter Koehler

Dept. of Neurology, Atrium Medical Centre, Heerlen

prof. Axel Karenberg

Dept of History of Medicine, University of Cologne

prof. emer. Harry Hillen

Dept of Internal Medicine, Maastricht University

prof. Eddy Houwaart

Department of Health, Ethics & Society, Maastricht University

prof. Harry Steinbusch

Dept. of Translational Neuroscience, Maastricht University

prof. Robert van Oostenbrugge

Dept. of Neurology, Maastricht University

dr. Maria Teresa Brancaccio

Department of Health, Ethics & Society, Maastricht University

dr. Antoine Keyser

Dept of Neurology, Nijmegen